Rationale

At Our Lady of the Assumption School the Discipline process is guided by the principles of our Vision Statement:

Faith
Service
Empathy
Cooperation
Total Development
Dignity
Openness
Truth
Evangelisation
Hopefulness
Celebration
Justice

It is a process for creating and developing an environment where a group of people can harmoniously live and work together to fulfill their goals.

All members of the school community have a right to experience -

- a safe, comfortable and happy school environment.
- respect from adults and children.
- justice.

Children need to:

- be guided in developing responsibility for their own behaviours
- experience positive reinforcement for appropriate behaviour
- accept known and consistent consequences for inappropriate behaviour.

Statements of Beliefs

At Our Lady of the Assumption we believe that:-

- the Discipline Process needs to be consistent and just.
- our school environment fosters a sense of identity through belonging, achievement and self worth.
- our learning environment is challenging and positive.
- all members of the school community should:-
  - be appreciated, respected and supported
  - develop effective communication skills in order to support each other
  - be active participants in the Discipline Process
- promote constructive and positive behaviour
- discipline is achieved by guiding the child towards self control and self direction.
- the development of self-esteem in children is a pre-requisite for positive relationships.
- a well planned curriculum is a foundation for good classroom discipline.
- constructive discipline grows out of an interactive pupil/teacher relationship.
- the responsibility for helping the children develop socially acceptable behaviour is shared by home, school and the community.

Procedures
1. Desired behaviours are to be taught as well as modelled.
2. In each area, teachers and students must be aware of, and carry out their responsibilities, as stated in the Discipline Policy and Procedures.
3. The teacher in charge of the student will in most cases determine consequences of inappropriate behaviour at the time.
4. The Principal is to be informed of all serious incidents of inappropriate behaviour.
5. Class teachers are to keep records of serious incidents as part of their individual child comments.
6. Parents will be informed of repeated or serious infringements of school rules.

Teachers’ Responsibilities are to:-
- teach the rule (Appendix 1).
- model and recognise specifically desired behaviour.
- point out inappropriate behaviour.
- affirm appropriate behaviour.
- teach strategies for handling inappropriate behaviour.
- make children aware of the consequences of repeatedly breaking the rule.

Children’s Responsibilities are to:-
- be aware of the rule (Appendix 1).
- demonstrate correct behaviour.
- be able to state the rule.
- take responsibility for their behaviour.
- be aware of the consequences of repeatedly breaking the rule.
- approach a teacher if necessary.

Consequences
In most instances it is the responsibility of the teacher of the class at the time or the teacher on yard duty to deal with the inappropriate behaviour and to enforce the consequences.
Consequences may be:-
- identification and statement of the rule by the child and the teacher.
- discussion.
- warning.
- repeating action in correct manner.
- time out / isolation (under supervision).
- sanctions, such as completing a task.
- loss of equipment.
- loss of privileges.
- extra work.
- severe reprimand.
- reparation to be made.
- letter to parents / teachers / students - a copy to kept with students’ file.

In some cases, executive assistance may be required in enforcing consequences.

In the case of continued inappropriate behaviour the following procedures will be implemented:

- teacher to inform principal
- student – principal interview
- parent contact to be made

Consequences may be:
- pupil - principal interview.
- teacher - parent interview.
- teacher - principal - parents interview.
- referral to outside agency.
- suspension (according to C.E.O. policy) (APPENDIX 2).

Acceptable Standards of Pupil Behaviour

- Pupils are expected to be respectful and polite to all members of the school community.
- Pupils are expected to make a real effort to care for one another and not to hurt each other by actions or words.
- Pupils are expected to respect school and each other’s property.
