

Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy sets out how Our Lady of the Assumption manages personal information provided to or collected by it.

Our Lady of the Assumption is bound by the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) contained in the Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988. In relation to health records, the School is also bound by the Health Records Act 2001 (Vic.) and the Health Privacy Principles in that Act.

Our Lady of the Assumption may, from time to time, review and update this Privacy Policy to take account of new laws and technology, changes to Our Lady of the Assumption's operations and practices and to make sure it remains appropriate to the changing school environment.

What kinds of personal information does Our Lady of the Assumption collect and how does the Our Lady of the Assumption collect it?

Our Lady of the Assumption collects and holds personal information, including health and other sensitive information, about:

- students and parents and/or guardians ('Parents') before, during and after the course of a student's enrolment at Our Lady of the Assumption including:
 - name, contact details (including next of kin), date of birth, gender, language background, previous school and religion
 - Parents' education, occupation and language background
 - medical information (e.g. details of disability and/or allergies, and details of any assistance the student receives in relation to those disabilities, medical reports, names of doctors)
 - conduct and complaint records, or other behaviour notes, school attendance and school reports
 - information about referrals to government welfare agencies
 - counselling reports
 - health fund details and Medicare number
 - any court orders
 - volunteering information (including Working With Children Checks)
 - photos and videos at school events.
- job applicants, staff members, volunteers and contractors, including:
 - name, contact details (including next of kin), date of birth and religion
 - information on job application
 - professional development history
 - salary and payment information, including superannuation details
 - medical information (eg details of disability and/or allergies and medical certificates)
 - complaint records and investigation reports
 - leave details
 - photos and videos at school events

- work emails and private emails (when using work email address) and internet browsing history
- other people who come into contact with Our Lady of the Assumption, including name and contact details and any other information necessary for the particular contact with Our Lady of the Assumption.

Personal Information you provide: Our Lady of the Assumption will generally collect personal information held about an individual by way of forms filled out by Parents or students, face-to-face meetings and interviews, emails and telephone calls. On occasions people other than Parents and students (such as job applicants and contractors) provide personal information Our Lady of the Assumption.

Personal Information provided by other people: In some circumstances Our Lady of the Assumption may be provided with personal information about an individual from a third party, for example a report provided by a medical professional or a reference from another school. The type of information the School may collect from another school may include:

- academic records and/or achievement levels
- information that may be relevant to assisting the new school meet the needs of the student including any adjustments

Exception in relation to employee records: Under the Privacy Act, the Australian Privacy Principles do not apply to an employee record. As a result, this Privacy Policy does not apply to Our Lady of the Assumption's treatment of an employee record where the treatment is directly related to a current or former employment relationship between Our Lady of the Assumption and employee. Our Lady of the Assumption handles staff health records in accordance with the Health Privacy Principles in the Health Records Act 2001 (Vic.).

Anonymity: Our Lady of the Assumption needs to be able to identify individuals with whom it interacts and to collect identifiable information about them to facilitate the delivery of schooling to its students and its educational and support services, conduct the job application process and fulfil other obligations and processes. However, in some limited circumstances some activities and interactions with Our Lady of the Assumption may be done anonymously where practicable, which may include making an inquiry, complaint or providing feedback.

How will Our Lady of the Assumption use the personal information you provide?

Our Lady of the Assumption will use personal information it collects from you for the primary purpose of collection, and for such other secondary purposes that are related to the primary purpose of collection and reasonably expected by you, or to which you have consented.

Students and Parents: In relation to personal information of students and Parents, Our Lady of the Assumption's primary purpose of collection is to enable the Our Lady of the Assumption to provide schooling to students enrolled at Our Lady of the Assumption (including educational and support services for the student), exercise its duty of care and perform necessary associated administrative activities which will enable students to take part in all the activities of Our Lady of the Assumption. This includes satisfying the needs of Parents, the needs of the student and the needs of the school throughout the whole period the student is enrolled at Our Lady of the Assumption.

The purposes for which Our Lady of the Assumption uses personal information of students and Parents include:

- to keep Parents informed about matters related to their child's schooling, through correspondence, newsletters and magazines
- day-to-day administration of Our Lady of the Assumption

- looking after students' educational, social and medical wellbeing
- seeking donations and marketing for Our Lady of the Assumption
- to satisfy Our Lady of the Assumption's legal obligations and allow Our Lady of the Assumption to discharge its duty of care
- to satisfy Our Lady of the Assumption's service providers' legal obligations, including the Catholic Education Commission of Victoria Ltd (CECV) and the Catholic Education Offices.

In some cases where Our Lady of the Assumption requests personal information about a student or Parent, if the information requested is not provided, Our Lady of the Assumption may not be able to enrol or continue the enrolment of the student or permit the student to take part in a particular activity.

Job applicants and contractors: In relation to personal information of job applicants and contractors, Our Lady of the Assumption's primary purpose of collection is to assess and (if successful) to engage the applicant, or contractor, as the case may be.

The purposes for which Our Lady of the Assumption uses personal information of job applicants and contractors include:

- administering the individual's employment or contract, as the case may be
- for insurance purposes
- seeking donations and marketing for Our Lady of the Assumption
- satisfying Our Lady of the Assumption's legal obligations, for example, in relation to child protection legislation.

Volunteers: Our Lady of the Assumption also obtains personal information about volunteers who assist Our Lady of the Assumption in its functions or conduct associated activities, such as [alumni associations], to enable Our Lady of the Assumption and the volunteers to work together, to confirm their suitability and to manage their visits.

Counsellors: Our Lady of the Assumption contracts with external providers to provide counselling services for some students. The principal may require the Counsellor to inform him or her or other teachers of any issues the principal and the Counsellor believe may be necessary for Our Lady of the Assumption to know for the well-being or development of the student who is counselled or other students at Our Lady of the Assumption.

Parish: Our Lady of the Assumption may disclose limited personal information to the school parish to facilitate religious and sacramental programs, and other activities such as fundraising.

Marketing and fundraising: Our Lady of the Assumption treats marketing and seeking donations for the future growth and development of the School as an important part of ensuring that the Our Lady of the Assumption continues to provide a quality learning environment in which both students and staff thrive. Personal information held by Our Lady of the Assumption may be disclosed to organisations that assist in the School's fundraising, for example, the School's Foundation or alumni organisation [or, on occasions, external fundraising organisations].

Parents, staff, contractors and other members of the wider School community may from time to time receive fundraising information. School publications, like newsletters and magazines, which include personal information and sometimes people's images, may be used for marketing purposes.

Who might Our Lady of the Assumption disclose personal information to and store your information with?

Our Lady of the Assumption may disclose personal information, including sensitive information, held about an individual for educational, administrative and support purposes. This may include to:

- School service providers which provide educational, support and health services to Our Lady of the Assumption, (either at the School or off campus) including the Catholic Education Commission of Victoria Ltd (CECV), Catholic Education Offices, specialist visiting teachers, volunteers, counsellors, sports coaches and providers of learning and assessment tools
- third party service providers that provide online educational and assessment support services, document and data management services, or applications to schools and school systems including the Integrated Catholic Online Network (ICON) and Google's G Suite, including Gmail and, where necessary, to support the training of selected staff in the use of these services
- CECV and Catholic Education offices to discharge its responsibilities under the Australian Education Regulation 2013 (Regulation) and the Australian Education Act 2013 (Cth) (AE Act) relating to students with a disability.
- other third parties which the school uses to support or enhance the educational or pastoral care services for its students or to facilitate communications with Parents
- another school including its teachers to facilitate the transfer of a student
- Federal and State government departments and agencies
- health service providers
- recipients of School publications, such as newsletters and magazines
- student's parents or guardians and their emergency contacts
- assessment and educational authorities including the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority
- anyone you authorise the School to disclose information to
- anyone who we are required or authorised to disclose the information to by law, including child protection laws.

Nationally Consistent Collection of Data on School Students with Disability

Our Lady of the Assumption is required by the Federal Australian Education Regulation (2013) and Australian Education Act 2013 (Cth) (AE Act) to collect and disclose certain information under the Nationally Consistent Collection of Data (NCCD) on students with a disability. Our Lady of the Assumption provides the required information at an individual student level to the Catholic Education Offices and the CECV, as an approved authority. Approved authorities must comply with reporting, record keeping and data quality assurance obligations under the NCCD. Student information provided to the federal government for the purpose of the NCCD does not explicitly identify any student.

Sending and storing information overseas: Our Lady of the Assumption may disclose personal information about an individual to overseas recipients, for instance, to facilitate a school exchange. However, Our Lady of the Assumption will not send personal information about an individual outside Australia without:

- obtaining the consent of the individual; or
- otherwise complying with the Australian Privacy Principles or other applicable privacy legislation.

Our Lady of the Assumption may from time to time use the services of third party online service providers (including for the delivery of services and third party online applications, or Apps relating to email, instant messaging and education and assessment, such as Google's G Suite, including Gmail) which may be accessible by you. Some personal information [including sensitive information] may be collected and processed or stored by these providers in connection with these services. These online service providers may be located in or outside Australia.

School personnel and the school's service providers, and the CECV and its service providers, may have the ability to access, monitor, use or disclose emails, communications (e.g. instant messaging), documents and associated administrative data for the purposes of administering the system and services ensuring their proper use.

Our Lady of the Assumption makes reasonable efforts to be satisfied about the security of any personal information that may be collected, processed and stored outside Australia, in connection with any cloud and third party services and will endeavour to ensure the cloud is located in countries with substantially similar protections as the APPs.

The Google agreement with Our Lady of the Assumption provides access to Google applications and storage. While Google hosts these services off-site from the school grounds, Our Lady of the Assumption maintains the ability to manage users, groups and settings, much like other locally hosted systems. All users of Our Lady of the Assumption's GAFE need to be aware that Our Lady of the Assumption's Google Administrator can access, manage and monitor accounts and activity within the GAFE domain.

Where personal and sensitive information is retained by a cloud service provider on behalf of CECV to facilitate Human Resources and staff administrative support, this information may be stored on servers located in or outside Australia.

How does Our Lady of the Assumption treat sensitive information?

In referring to 'sensitive information', Our Lady of the Assumption means: information relating to a person's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religion, trade union or other professional or trade association membership, philosophical beliefs, sexual orientation or practices or criminal record, that is also personal information; health information and biometric information about an individual.

Sensitive information will be used and disclosed only for the purpose for which it was provided or a directly related secondary purpose, unless you agree otherwise, or the use or disclosure of the sensitive information is allowed by law.

Management and security of personal information

Our Lady of the Assumption's staff are required to respect the confidentiality of students' and Parents' personal information and the privacy of individuals.

Our Lady of the Assumption has in place steps to protect the personal information Our Lady of the Assumption holds from misuse, interference and loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure by use of various methods including locked storage of paper records and password access rights to computerised records. This includes responding to any incidents which may affect the security of the personal information it holds. If we assess that anyone whose information is affected by such a breach is likely to suffer serious harm as a result, we will notify them and the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner of the breach.

It is recommended that parents and the school community adopt secure practices to protect themselves. You should ensure that all passwords you use are strong and regularly updated and that your log in details are kept secure. Do not share your personal information with anyone without first verifying their identity and organisation. If you believe any of your personal information has been compromised, please let the School know immediately.

Access and correction of personal information

Under the Privacy Act and the Health Records Act, an individual has the right to seek and obtain access to any personal information and health records respectively which Our Lady of the Assumption holds about them and to advise Our Lady of the Assumption of any perceived inaccuracy. Students will generally be able to access and update their personal information through their Parents, but older students may seek access and correction themselves.

There are some exceptions to the access rights set out in the applicable legislation.

To make a request to access or to update any personal information Our Lady of the Assumption holds about you or your child, please contact the Principal Mrs Leonie Young or Mrs Gabrielle McGee our Finance & Administration Officer by telephone or in writing. Our Lady of the Assumption may require you to verify your identity and specify what information you require. Our Lady of the Assumption may charge a fee to cover the cost of verifying your application and locating, retrieving, reviewing and copying any material requested. If the information sought is extensive, Our Lady of the Assumption will advise the likely cost in advance. If we cannot provide you with access to that information, we will provide you with written notice explaining the reasons for refusal.

Consent and rights of access to the personal information of students

Our Lady of the Assumption respects every Parent's right to make decisions concerning their child's education.

Generally, Our Lady of the Assumption will refer any requests for consent and notices in relation to the personal information of a student to the student's Parents. Our Lady of the Assumption will treat consent given by Parents as consent given on behalf of the student, and notice to Parents will act as notice given to the student.

Parents may seek access to personal information held by the School about them or their child by contacting the Principal Mrs Leonie Young or Mrs Gabrielle McGee our Finance & Administration Officer by telephone or in writing. However, there may be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where release of the information would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, or where the release may result in a breach of Our Lady of the Assumption's duty of care to the student.

Our Lady of the Assumption may, at its discretion, on the request of a student grant that student access to information held by Our Lady of the Assumption about them, or allow a student to give or withhold consent to the use of their personal information, independently of their Parents. This would normally be done only when the maturity of the student and/or the student's personal circumstances warrant it.

Enquiries and complaints and contact details

If you would like further information about the way Our Lady of the Assumption manages the personal information it holds about you, or wish to complain that you believe that Our Lady of the Assumption has breached its privacy obligations, please contact the principal Mrs. Leonie Young by writing or telephone at principal@olacheltenham.catholic.edu.au or 9584 9488. Our Lady of the Assumption will investigate your complaint and will notify you of the making of a decision in relation to your complaint as soon as is practicable after it has been made.

If you are not satisfied with Our Lady of the Assumption's decision you may make a complaint to the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC) whose contact details are:

GPO Box 5218, Sydney, NSW 2001

Telephone: 1300 363 992

www.oaic.gov.au